MINISTRY OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AND CO-OPERATION

(Department of Cooperation)

New Delhi, the 11th June 1959

No. F. 5-82/59-Coop.II.—The Second Five-Year Plan envisages that the main task during the Plan period should be to take such essential steps as would provide sound foundations for the development of cooperative farming so that a substantial proportion of agricultural lands are cultivated on cooperative lines. More recently, the Government of India have accepted joint cooperative farming on a voluntary basis as the future agrarian pattern in India. Conditions have to be created in the country so that joint farming may have a fair chance of success. For this purpose, it is necessary to ensure that financial and other facilities, technical knowledge and guidance are available to those who voluntarily decide to establish joint farming societies.

- 2 The Government of India have, therefore, decided to set up a Working Group on Cooperative Farming to help the formulation of a programme for this purpose based on available experience. able experience.
  - 3. The Working Group will consist of the following:-
    - 1. Shri S. Nijalingappa, MLA Chairman.
    - 2. Dr. Ram Subhag Singh, M.P.-Member.

  - (iv) assessment of performance;
  - (v) payment of remuneration to workers;
  - (vi) maintenance of accounts.
  - (d) mobilisation and fuller utilization of manpower, cattle and other local resources;
  - (e) measures necessary for setting up cottage and other subsidiary industries for increasing employment;
  - (f) measures necessary for preservation and maintenance of individual initiative and at the same time fostering close contract, social cohesion and mutual obligation.
- II. To assess financial requirements and suggest how these should be met.
- III. To assess the requirements of administrative, supervisory and technical personnel at various levels;
  - IV. To suggest arrangements for training of-
    - (i) members;
    - (ii) office bearers;
    - (ili) managers; and
    - (iv) administrative, supervisory and technical staff and formulate a phased programme of training;
- V. To recommend such other measures as may be considered noncessary for promoting this programme of joint cooperative farming.
- 5. The Working Group will submit its report within two menths from the date of its formation.
- 6. Headquarters of the Group shall be Delhi. The Group may undertake tours as and when necessary and may also record evidence of individuals, cooperative societies and others who may have expert knowledge on the subject.
